

BOOKED . . . Peter Marshall, star of Hollywood Squares TV show, has been booked by Torrance police to appear at the gala Show and Dance, sponsored annually by the Torrance Police Officers Association. Marshall will be master of ceremonies at the show, scheduled for Nov. 23 at 8:30 p.m. in the Long Beach Arena. Proceeds support the police officers' youth and charity programs. Tickets are $5 per family.

Auction Scheduled Saturday

Personal property belonging to some 50 estates will be sold at auction Saturday, according to Baldo M. Kristovich, public administrator for Los Angeles County.

General inspection will begin at 9 a.m. and jewelry may be inspected between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.

An electric organ, two pianos, and several paintings will be offered about noon, along with various appliances and household furnishings.

Jewelry, coins, and other small items—including a $20 gold certificate and a $2.50 gold coin—will be sold beginning at 5 p.m., Kristovich said.

Home entertainment items, sports equipment, lamps, clocks, china and glassware, furniture, and various items will be sold throughout the day.

Cash or cashier checks only will be accepted and payment must be made at the time of purchase. All items are sold as is, the public administrator said.

Deadline Near for CHP Test

Only 15 days are left to apply to take the test for a position as a California Highway Patrol traffic officer, according to California Highway Patrol Captain P. J. Ford of South Los Angeles Area.

Friday, Nov. 1, is the last day applications will be accepted for the Nov. 23 written test. Application blanks are available at any Highway Patrol, State Employment Service, Department of Motor Vehicles, or State Personnel Board Office.

Applicants must be between 21 and 31 years old, between five feet nine and six feet six in height, in good health and have a high diploma or the equivalent.

Strychnine Blamed for Dog's Death

Strychnine poisoning has been blamed for the death of a Boston terrier belonging to Mrs. Pearl Voich, 20324 Eastwood Ave.

Mrs. Voich told police she let her three pet dogs out of the house at 10 p.m. Saturday. When she readmitted them 15 minutes later, she said, the 3-year-old Boston terrier began having convulsions.

Mrs. Voich believes a neighbor, who had complained about the dogs in the past, fed the terrier poisoned hot dogs.
